

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 5120:1-1-16 Violator at large.

Effective: April 1, 2005

- (A) Whenever an offender absconds from the supervision of the adult parole authority, such fact shall be reported in writing by the unit supervisor, or supervising officer of the offender, to the chief of the adult parole authority or designee pursuant to the policies and procedures of the division of parole and community services.
- (B) Upon receipt of such written report the offender may be declared a violator-at-large and such declaration entered into the official minutes of the adult parole authority or such decision may be delayed pending further investigation.
- (C) Upon apprehension of a violator-at-large, or declaration that an offender is a violator-at-large, the procedures as set forth in rules 5120:1-1-31 and 5120:1-1-34 of the Administrative Code shall apply.
- (D) The procedures as set forth in this rule shall not apply to probation offenders or community control offenders under the supervision of the adult parole authority.
